

*AFP MA, CCS Fundraising, and WID
Monday Webinar Series*

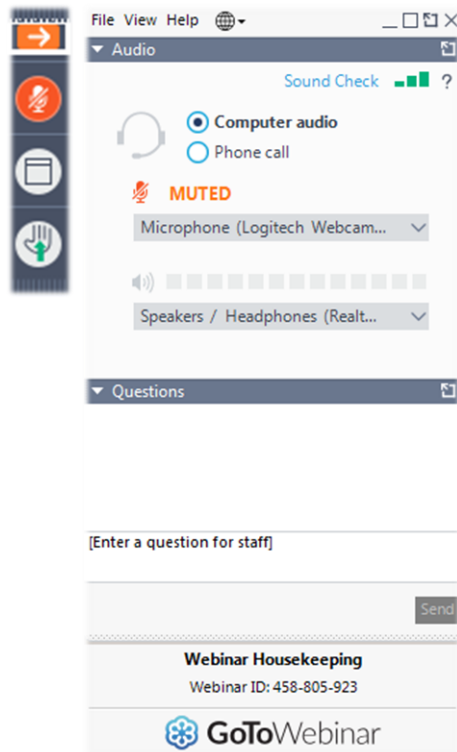

FUNDRAISING IN A VIRTUAL WORLD: STORIES FROM THE FRONT LINE

APRIL 20, 2020

Logistics

To join audio:

- Choose “Computer audio” to use VoIP and listen through your computer
- OR
- Choose “Phone call” and dial using the information provided. International numbers available.

Throughout the webinar please type your questions here for discussion later

Today's Panelists

Sam Abate
Marketing and Communications
Catholic Schools
Foundation

Elsa Gomes
Bondlow
*Vice President of Growth and Partnership
Development
Building Impact*

Danielle Degnan
*Chief
Development
Officer*
National Coast
Guard
Museum
Association

Jillian Kohl
Director of Development
Temple Beth
Elohim

Mike Reardon
Executive Director
Catholic Schools
Foundation

Today's Facilitators

Brian Nevins

Principal & Managing Director, CCS Fundraising

Kate Villa

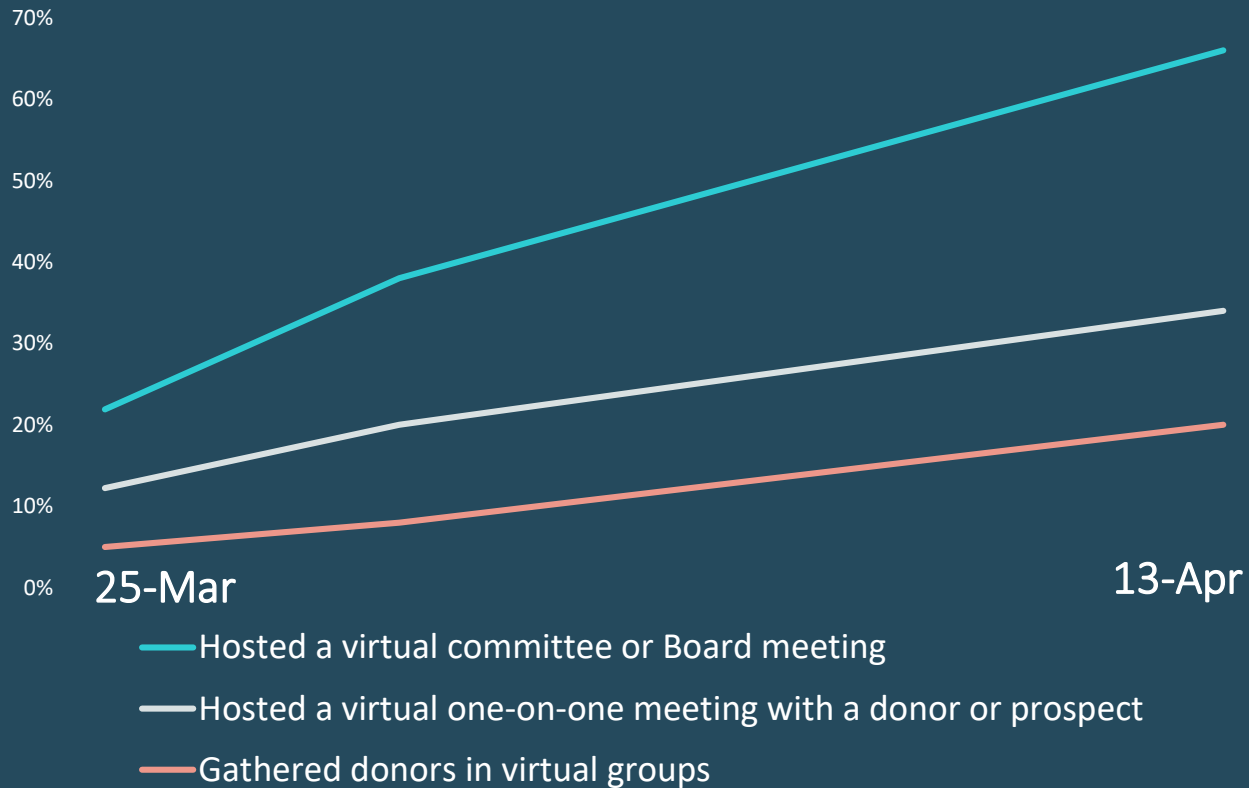

*Corporate Vice President,
CCS Fundraising*

Poll Questions

Our Digital Reality

A short period of acclimation in a highly interpersonal field.

Trends We Are Seeing

Individual Meetings

34% have hosted

Virtual Committee Meetings

Development/
Advancement
Committee

Gala Committee

Campaign
Committee

Board meeting

66% have hosted

Virtual Volunteering

Of the sectors, volunteer engagement is the largest concern in the education sector followed by the healthcare sector.

Virtual Events

89% have cancelled, rescheduled, or created virtual events to replace galas, reunions, or other fundraising events this spring

Comments and Discussion

Sam Abate
Catholic Schools
Foundation

Elsa Gomes
Bondlow
Building Impact

Danielle Degnan
National Coast Guard
Museum Association

Jillian Kohl
Temple Beth
Elohim

Mike Reardon
Catholic Schools
Foundation

Brian Nevins
CCS Fundraising

Kate Villa
CCS Fundraising

Thank You for Joining Us

www.ccsfundraising.com

