CLAUDIA A. LOONEY | Senior Consultant

Claudia Looney brings more than 45 years of experience in non-profit development and management. Prior to her role as project consultant at CCS, Claudia served as the Senior Vice President of Development at Children's Hospital Los Angeles. In addition to managing all aspects of the fundraising activities, Claudia has overseen the capital campaign that raised more than $1.03 billion. This was the largest campaign at the time, for a free-standing children's Hospital. Additional campaign experience includes a $125 million campaign to build the new Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago, the $60 million campaign for the California Institute of the Arts (CalArts), a $20 million CalArts earthquake renewal campaign, and the $20 million campaign to build the Woman's Hospital at Saddleback Memorial Medical Center.

Claudia has had extensive fundraising and communications management experience at key organizations. In addition to leading all fundraising programs, activities and development operations for Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, she managed and oversaw all fundraising, as President of the Northwestern Memorial Foundation in Chicago. When Vice President for Planning and Advancement for California Institute of the Arts, and as President of the Saddleback Memorial Foundation, Claudia was responsible for all aspects of fundraising, marketing, and communications.

Claudia has been recognized for her years of fundraising experience. Claudia was recognized as the recipient of the 2012 CCS Award for Outstanding Fundraising Professional presented by AFP. She was named 1994 Fund Raiser of the Year for Orange County, 1996 Fund Raiser of the Year for Los Angeles County, and YWCA's Woman of Distinction for Orange County in 2004. In her professional career, Claudia has served many organizations, including:
