

Erin Hickey

UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals

Erin Hickey joined the UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals leadership team as the Assistant Vice Chancellor of Development for Children's Health in February of 2016. In this position, she is responsible for designing and directing fundraising strategies for UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals in Oakland and San Francisco, and the entire Children's Health enterprise. Erin has worked with UCSF since 2007 as the lead consultant for the Campaign for the UCSF Medical Center at Mission Bay, which includes UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco. In 2014, following the affiliation between UCSF and Children's Hospital Oakland, she was named Interim Executive Director of Development for UCSF Medical Center.

Erin is a graduate of the University of Oregon with a Bachelor of Science degree in Journalism. Erin is an East Bay native, and now lives in Danville with her husband Ted and her four-year-old son, Owen. Erin is a rabid Warriors fan, and being an alumna of Oregon, she, of course, follows the Ducks in all collegiate competition.
