

Karen McNeil-Miller

President and CEO, Colorado Health Foundation

Karen McNeil-Miller describes social and human impact as the center of her life's work. As the president and CEO of the Colorado Health Foundation, Karen helps guide the Foundation to determine the most impactful investment of human, financial and influence capital on behalf of Colorado's most vulnerable individuals and families.

At the Foundation since September 2015, Karen's role is to set direction with the Board, gain commitment from staff, external stakeholders and partners, and align resources to advance the Foundation's mission to improve the health of Coloradans. Bringing the Foundation's mission to life is her driving force. She says, "I chose this important field of work to be on the ground in Colorado communities and to get closer to those in need – many through no fault of their own – and assist in every way I could."
