

MARCIA L. MINTZ
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF THE VALLEY

Marcia Mintz is the Chief Executive Officer of Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley. She has more than 25 years of global, national corporate and nonprofit experience.

Prior to BGCAZ, she served as President of John C. Lincoln Health Foundation and Senior Vice President of Community Benefit for HonorHealth. Earlier in her career, she worked in the Bay Area creating corporate and individual partnerships for a nonprofit multi-use residential and recreational campus and eight years in global program development in Latin America, Cuba, Europe and the Baltic States.

She was named one of Phoenix Business Journal's Outstanding Women in Business, 2019; AZ Business magazine's 50 Most Influential Women in Arizona Business in 2017 and 2014, and a Woman Who Moves the Valley 2012 by Arizona Foothills magazine.

Ms. Mintz earned a master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona's Eller School of Management and a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from New York University's Tisch School of Arts.

She serves on the board of Arizona School for the Arts and is a member of the ASU President's Community Council and the Paradise Valley Unified School District Business Advisory Council.

