

Liz Kolcun

President and Chief Development Officer, Marin General Hospital Foundation

Liz Kolcun, an accomplished health care philanthropy professional, joined the Marin General Hospital team in May 2016. Previously, Kolcun served as Chief Development Officer for the Palo Alto Medical Foundation (PAMF) where she led the philanthropy programs. Earlier in her career, Kolcun directed all aspects of major gift fund development at California Pacific Medical Center Foundation. Over her extensive tenure in health care philanthropy, she has held responsibility for capital campaigns, individual major and principal gifts, planned gifts, grant writing, direct mail, event planning and philanthropy communications. Kolcun is a graduate of the University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida.

