

Nancy L. Clark

Founder, Impact 100 East Bay

Nancy utilizes her business, financial, and technical knowledge to improve individual, team and organizational performance. Most recently, Nancy worked with a group of like-minded women to found Impact 100 East Bay, where she serves as Board President. Previously, with more than 30 years of systems, operations, and organizational development experience, Nancy founded Leadership Dynamics, Inc. in 1998, an international consulting firm based in North America and Europe. She serves on the Board of the Conservation Society of California (Oakland Zoo) and is Board President of On the Move. Nancy received her M.B.A. Degree from the University of Santa Clara and her B.A. Degree from the University of California, Davis.

