

RENÉE BIANCO
REGIONAL ASSOCIATE CHIEF
PHILANTHROPY OFFICER,
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
FOUNDATIONS

PROVIDENCE ST. JOSEPH HEALTH

Renée Bianco, MEd, is Regional Associate Chief Philanthropy Officer of Southern California Foundations at Providence St. Joseph Health. Most recently, she was the Executive Director of the Providence Saint Joseph Foundation, overseeing all fundraising priorities for the hospital, including the new Emergency Services Campaign. She was previously Associate Senior Vice President of Development at Children's Hospital Los Angeles Foundation, overseeing the Board-approved fundraising priorities for the hospital's Department of Pediatrics, Research and several sub-specialties within the Department of Surgery. During her 6-year tenure, she oversaw a team of 50, which included Corporate Partnerships, Foundation Relations, and several annual and major gift unrestricted giving programs. Before that, she served as Vice President of Branch and Major Gifts in the corporate office of the YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles Association for 10 years. She also spent several years as a Senior Development Officer at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, the Museum of the City of New York and the Center for Policy Alternatives, a national political nonprofit based in Washington, D.C. Renée obtained a master's degree in education from the University of Pennsylvania.

