

VICTOR A. DOMINGUEZ
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND
CHIEF MISSION ADVANCEMENT OFFICER
YMCA OF METROPOLITAN LOS ANGELES

Victor Dominguez is a native Californian born and raised in Whittier. While working for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Fullerton Victor earned a Bachelor of Science degree in both Child & Adolescent Studies and Sociology from California State University, Fullerton. Victor is currently The Executive Vice President & Chief Mission Advancement Officer for the YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles, and formerly held the position of Senior Vice President of Operation/Community Development for the YMCA. Prior to working for the YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles Victor was the Executive Director for the YMCA of Greater Long Beach.

Victor has been a National Trainer for Boys & Girls Clubs of America, training adolescents in the country how to become leaders in their communities and about drug and alcohol prevention. Some of his personal achievements include being named by the Los Angeles Dodgers as the Hero in the Community (2013) as well as being named the City of Fullerton Success Story of the year (2003). Victor has received certificates of Appreciation for his work in the community by numerous Elected Officials. Victor was one of three YMCA of the USA professionals to be given the Andrew Young award for celebrating diversity in the workplace (2006).

Victor is a member of the Delta Air Lines Advisory Board, Cal State LA Presidents Council, White Memorial Medical Center Leadership Board, Chairman of the Governing Board of the East Los Angeles Doctors Hospital, Board Director of SCE Federal Credit Union, Advisory Task force Member for Metro, Member of the USC Keck School of Medicine Community Council, and Former Commissioner of the City of Huntington Park Health and Education Commission.